
Supplementary figure 1 | Scatterplot of mean number of publications per interaction
Despite a positive correlation between degree and the number of publications on a protein in our data, there is no correlation between the degree and the mean number of papers per interaction, as shown here as a a scatterplot with multiple lines fit to the data.