The author brought to our attention that Figure 2 has no background, suggesting that images of the same band has been re-used in the figure. They provided Figure 2 with the pixelate background to clarify this concern. Further, the negative result of KLK3 IgG experiment is provided in the correct orientation.

They also informed that Figure 4B, the loading control image was an inadvertent duplicate of Figure 4A. They provided Figure 4B with the correct loading control image.

These corrections do not change the results and interpretation of the article.

Correct versions of figures are as below.
