Readers should note that the version of the article that appeared in print in the July 2021 issue and online until August 2021 has been amended. The version now appearing online (in PDF and full text format) is the correct one. For information, the following amendment has been made to the original published version.

The footnote to Box 5 (Owner checklist for detecting DJD-associated pain in cats), which appears on page 624 of the article, has been expanded to note that the information is based on the Musculoskeletal Pain Screening Checklist (MiPSC) that is copyright of North Carolina State University. The footnote now reads as follows: 'From Enomoto et al.⁹⁷ Based on the Musculoskeletal Pain Screening Checklist (MiPSC) © 2019 North Carolina State University'.
