

ERRATA

J. Physiol. 213 (1971)

J. L. LINZELL and M. PEAKER

Page 49*P* line 14:

The final sentence of this paragraph should read: The small quantities of radioactive ions present in duct milk could have entered by diffusion from the alveolar milk because the distribution of [<sup>14</sup>C]lactose 10–20 min after injection into the teat showed that about 10% had already mixed with alveolar milk in this time.

J. Physiol. 213 (1971)

Page 24*P*

The authors of the first communication to the Cardiff meeting are:

J. Cranford, I. T. Diamond, R. Ravizza and I. C. Whitfield