

MICROBIOLOGY. For the article “Isolates of Zaire ebolavirus from wild apes reveal genetic lineage and recombinants,” by Tatiana J. Wittmann, Roman Biek, Alexandre Hassanin, Pierre Rouquet, Patricia Reed, Philippe Yaba, Xavier Pourrut, Leslie A. Real, Jean-Paul Gonzalez, and Eric M. Leroy, which appeared in issue 43, October 23, 2007, of Proc Natl Acad Sci USA (104:17123–17127; first published October 17, 2007; 10.1073/pnas.0704076104), the affiliation for Jean-Paul Gonzalez should have appeared as “Institut de Recherche pour le Développement, UR178, Center for Vectors and Vector-Borne Diseases, Faculty of Science, Mahidol University at Salaya, Phutthamonthon 4, Nakhonpathom 73170, Thailand.” The corrected affiliation line appears below.

†Centre International de Recherches Médicales de Franceville, BP 769 Franceville, Gabon; ‡Department of Biology and Center for Disease Ecology, Emory University, 1510 Clifton Road, Atlanta, GA 30322; §Muséum National d’Histoire Naturelle/Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique, Unite Mixte de Recherche 5202, 75005 Paris, France; ¶Wildlife Conservation Society, 2300 Southern Boulevard, Bronx, NY 10460; ||Institut de Recherches pour le Développement, UR178, Centre International de Recherches Médicales de Franceville, BP 769 Franceville, Gabon; and Institut de Recherche pour le Développement, UR178, Center for Vectors and Vector-Borne Diseases, Faculty of Science, Mahidol University at Salaya, Phutthamonthon 4, Nakhonpathom 73170, Thailand

NEUROSCIENCE. For the article “Dissociating the neural mechanisms of memory-based guidance of visual selection,” by David Soto, Glyn W. Humphreys, and Pia Rotshtein, which appeared in issue 43, October 23, 2007, of Proc Natl Acad Sci USA (104:17186–17191; first published October 16, 2007; 10.1073/pnas.0703706104), the authors note that, due to a printer’s error, the third line of the Abstract appeared incorrectly in part. “How WM and implicit priming affects influence visual selection remains poorly understood, however” should read: “How WM and implicit priming influence visual selection remains poorly understood.” Additionally, on page 17186, in the second line of the second paragraph, left column, “This work has led to the development of the influentially biased competition model of visual selection (1), where it is hypothesized that memory acts to bias the competition for selection between different objects in the visual scene” should read: “This work has led to the development of the influential biased competition model of visual selection (1), where it is hypothesized that memory acts to bias the competition for selection between different objects in the visual scene.” These errors do not affect the conclusions of the article.

MEDICAL SCIENCES. For the article “The EGF receptor is required for efficient liver regeneration,” by Anuradha Natarajan, Bettina Wagner, and Maria Sibilina, which appeared in issue 43, October 23, 2007, of Proc Natl Acad Sci USA (104:17081–17086; first published October 16, 2007; 10.1073/pnas.0704126104), the authors note that, due to a printer’s error, line 3 of the Acknowledgments appeared incorrectly. The sentence should read as follows: “This project was supported by Austrian National Bank ÖNB-10556 and the European Community Grant Growthstop LSHC-CT-2006-037731.”
