In: Friedman SR, Cooper HLF, Osborne AH. Structural and social contexts of HIV risk among African Americans. Am J Public Health. 2009;99:1002–1008. doi: 10.2105/AJPH.2008.140327.

Statements were incorrectly reported. On page 1002, the second sentence of the top paragraph in the first column should read: To develop more effective HIV prevention among African Americans, we must develop a specific understanding of the dynamics of HIV transmission.

On page 1006, the second sentence of the second full paragraph in the third column should read: For example, in some jurisdictions, agencies within or funded by local governments provide harm reduction training to police so that police officers do not harass syringe exchange clients or sex traders. Such harassment greatly hinders HIV-related risk reduction.

In: Lescano CM, Houck CD, Brown LK, et al. Correlates of heterosexual anal intercourse among at-risk adolescents and young adults. Am J Public Health. 2009;99:1131–1136. doi: 10.2105/AJPH.2007.123752.

A percentage in Table 1 was incorrectly reported. On page 1133, the row Partner has threatened or forced sexual intercourse in Table 1 should read:

TABLE 1—Demographic Characteristics and Risk Behaviors Among Adolescent Girls and Young Urban Women in 3 US Cities: Project SHIELD, 2000–2001

	Have Had Anal Intercourse (n = 113), % or Mean (SD)	Have Not Had Anal Intercourse (n = 646), % or Mean (SD)	χ^2 or t^a	df
Partner has threatened or forced sexual intercourse	14	4	16.95	1

^aDichotomous variables were compared by the χ^2 test. All others were compared by the t test.

* $P < .05$;  $P < .01$;  $P < .001$
