Figures 6 and 7

There were three formatting errors accidentally introduced in both Figure 6 and Figure 7. In both figures, the label E' appears in panel A, but should be in panel A' and the label F' appears in panel C, but should be in panel C'. In addition, in the schematic diagram in the bottom left corner of each figure, there are three arrows that indicate rostral (r), caudal (c), and lateral (l) axes. The “c” is located below the “r”, but should be located to the right of the arrow pointing right.
