The authors wish to point out that the source of two cell lines have been elaborated in the Materials and methods section, and contribution from additional partners have been fully acknowledged.

1 In Materials and Methods Section 2.2, the sentence “SVOG and KGN cells were obtained from Shandong University” should be replaced with: “SVOG cells were gifted from Prof. Peter C.K. Leung of University of British Columbia to The Chinese University of Hong Kong – Shandong University (CUHK-SDU) Joint Laboratory on Reproductive Genetics. KGN cells were gifted from Prof. Toshihiko Yanase of Fukuoka University in Japan to Center for Reproductive Medicine, Shandong Provincial Hospital, Shandong University.”

2 The correct Acknowledgements section should read as follows: We thank Prof. Chan Wai-Yee from CUHK-SDU Joint Laboratory on Reproductive Genetics for his valuable comments. We also thank Prof. Peter C.K. Leung and Prof. T. Yanase for their generous gifts of cell lines.
