This article was originally published with no Contribution Statement. The following Contribution Statement has since been added to the article: “All authors contributed to the concept and design of this project. TMH collected, analyzed, and interpreted the data and drafted the manuscript. All other authors provided feedback and final approval of the manuscript.”

Additionally, when the article was first published, the conflict of interest statement originally read as follows: “TMH, JVR, and JBS founded Ancillary Genomic Systems, LLC, to explore the commercial potential of omic ancillary systems. They have not received any payments for this work and are not currently marketing any products. All other authors have no competing interests to report.” One author is no longer involved in this LLC, and his name has since been removed. The statement now reads as follows: “TMH and JBS founded Ancillary Genomic Systems, LLC, to explore the commercial potential of omic ancillary systems. They have not received any payments for this work and are not currently marketing any products. All other authors have no competing interests to report.”
