This Article contains a typographical error in the Introduction section under subheading ‘Understanding Early Horse Domestication and Transport’ where,
