published online 17 July 2020

Since the online publication of this article on 17th July 2020, the authors have been made aware of issues with their reference manager software that affected some of the references.

Reference number 8: typo in surname Hernderson—should be Henderson.

Correct reference: Bolland S, Henderson R, Loffler G, Gordon G. Therapeutic prescribing for optometrists: an initial perspective. Optometry in Practice. 2011;12(3): 87–98.

Reference number 11: Journal detail in brackets is incorrect—not “Bangkok”—should be “Oxford”.

Correct reference: Legge R, Strang NC, Loffler G. Distribution of optometric practices relative to deprivation index in Scotland. J Public Health (Oxf). 2018;40(2):389–396.

Reference number 18: Journal detail in brackets is incorrect—not “Bangkok”—should be “Oxford”.

Correct reference: Fung M, Myers P, Wasala P, Hirji N. A review of 1000 referrals to Walsall’s hospital eye service. J Public Health (Oxf). 2016;38(3):599–606.

Additionally, we (the publishers) misstated the access dates for references 4, 5, 10, and 17 (we stated the access dates as August 15th 2020). We have corrected all these dates too.
