Page 15262. In Figure 9 of the orignal manuscript, the 3T3 fibroblast cell images were mistakenly duplicated. The corrected version appears below. Although this error does not change any interpretations of or conclusions from our work during the initial submission, review, and publication process, we take full responsibility for the mistake and apologize for this negligence on our part.

Figure 9. Representative optical images of 3T3 fibroblast cells after 24 h of leachate exposure using EVOS XL microscope. No observable difference in the morphologies of the fibroblast cells was found with respect to the control.
