MIER3 suppresses the progression of non-small cell lung cancer by inhibiting Wnt/ β -Catenin pathway and histone acetyltransferase activity

In the January 2020 issue of Transl Cancer Res, the paper “MIER3 suppresses the progression of non-small cell lung cancer by inhibiting Wnt/ β -Catenin pathway and histone acetyltransferase activity” by Dr. Zhang et al. (1) was published with an error in the Figure 3 by attaching a wrong Figure 3B.

The Figure 3B should be replaced and corrected as the below one.

The authors regret the error and all inconveniences caused.
