Correction to: Scientific Reports https://doi.org/10.1038/s41598-021-98089-3, published online 17 September 2021

The original version of this Article omitted information on data deposition in the Data Availability section, where

"The datasets generated from the current study are available from the corresponding author on reasonable request."

now reads:

"The datasets generated from the current study are available from the corresponding author on reasonable request. All raw sequencing data described in this manuscript is available on ENA/SRA under the accession number PRJEB55383."

The original Article has been corrected.
