

Supplementary Figure 3. APTT cross-mixing test.

The patient and normal plasma were mixed with various ratios. APTT was measured immediately after mixing or after 2 hours of reaction. Both lines showed the downward convex pattern, ruling out the presence of the inhibitors to factor VIII.