

Title: Reporting of Important Social Determinants of Health in Pediatric Clinical Trials

Authors: Chris A. Rees, Amanda M. Stewart, Elyse N. Portillo, Sagar Mehta, Elorm Avakame, Jasmyne Jackson, Jheanelle McKay, Kenneth A. Michelson, Christopher P. Duggan, Eric W. Fleegler

Journal: American Journal of Preventive Medicine

Appendix Table. Elements of caregiver or participant socioeconomic factors reported in 293 published articles reporting pediatric clinical trial results^a

Socioeconomic factor	n (%)
Caregiver education	190 (39.0)
Household income	135 (27.7)
Insurance type or status	90 (18.5)
School lunch program enrollment	18 (3.7)
Caregiver employment	15 (3.1)
Community level income	12 (2.5)
Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) enrollment	7 (1.4)
Receipt of public assistance	6 (1.2)
Low socioeconomic status, not otherwise specified	5 (1.0)
Literacy	5 (1.0)
Food insecurity	2 (0.4)
Family Aid Index	1 (0.2)
Composite socioeconomic score	1 (0.2)

^aPublished trials may have reported >1 socioeconomic measure