

Patients are more likely to undergo plastic surgery when exposed to plastic surgery on social media

Patients are more likely to prefer a plastic surgeon with a social media presence

Patients respond positively to social media by plastic surgery practices

The use of social media in plastic surgery is overall positive for the field

The use of social media in plastic surgery improves the image of the field

The use of social media in plastic surgery worsens the image of the field

Strongly disagree Disagree Neutral Agree Strongly agree