

Supplementary Figure 1. Number of principal components retained in each facial module. The number is the minimum required to explain $\geq 98\%$ of variation in the facial module.