Supplemental Figure 2. For each gene from HumanN (see supplementary Table 1), the log10 of the ratio of the average of all timepoints for each patient divided by the corresponding value for the donor. The x-axis show this ratio for the Vanderbilt patient and the y-axis show this ratio for the Chapel Hill patient.