

Supplement figure:

The uncut original Western Blotting images data. They are whole and original images because they were cut the membranes according to size of each targets before probing by primary antibody using the size marker (Precision Plus Protein Kaleidoscope, Bio-Rad). So we cannot see the bands of size marker in these images because they were provided in the membranes.