Fig S7. Correlation analysis (Spearman) for the genetic models, late adolescence. The data set comprises the clinical evaluation (clinical score) and the set of behavioral/biochemical variables. In both genetic models, clinical scores were not elevated during late adolescence (all animals were given a clinical score of zero in the assessment).