Additional Information

Explanation for why data not available: The organization conducting the trial (Society for Applied Studies, India) is a collaborator in the Healthy Birth, Growth, and Development Knowledge Integration (HBGDki) of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and the data generated from the study will be shared as part of the HBGDKi repository (<https://github.com/HBGDKi>). Individual requests will also be considered on a case-to-case basis. The request for data should be accompanied by a detailed proposal describing the scientific questions to be addressed. Proposals should be submitted to ST (sunita.taneja@sas.org.in).
