

Figure S1: Physical activity outcomes from daily life walking calculated as mean of the medians per day over the week. The dots indicate individual participants, with lines connecting their pre- and post-measurement. The horizontal black lines indicate the group medians.