Supplementary Section - Data format

The OCT volume scans were exported as raw OCT files (in a .vol format) from the Heidelberg Eye Explorer (HEYEX), which contains a stack of unprocessed OCT B-scans. These raw files were then converted to a DICOM (.dcm) format when they were used in the deep learning model development and evaluation.