

Data Sharing Statement

Data

Data available: Yes

Data types: Deidentified participant data

How to access data: Access to Anonymized individual participant data that support these results is made available 12 months after study completion and not less than 12 months after the product and indication have been approved in the US and/or the EU.

When available: beginning date: 12-31-2025

Supporting Documents

Document types: None

Additional Information

Who can access the data: Access will be provided contingent upon the approval of a research proposal and the execution of a data sharing agreement. Requests for access to data can be submitted via the website www.vivli.org.

Types of analyses: Access will be provided contingent upon the approval of a research proposal and the execution of a data sharing agreement. Requests for access to data can be submitted via the website www.vivli.org.

Mechanisms of data availability: Access will be provided contingent upon the approval of a research proposal and the execution of a data sharing agreement. Requests for access to data can be submitted via the website www.vivli.org.