

Parents vaccination status before and after hospitalization

Supplemental Digital Content 4. Parental vaccination status before and after the MIS-C, arranged by randomization date. The red and blue line represent the mother’s and father’s vaccination status, respectively. Additionally, the quarter of the year during which randomization took place is indicated, offering insight into potential impacts of the timing of MIS-C events on parental vaccination status.