

Description of Additional Supplementary Files

File Name: Supplementary Movie 1

Description: The movie demonstrates that electricity harvested from CO₂ adsorption reached 5V through the series and parallel connection of multiple generators, which is then used to power a light-emitting diode for several cycles.