

S3 Table: Definition of ongoing symptomatic COVID-19 and post-COVID-19 syndrome using self-reported symptom data from CoMMinS versus SIS.

	Persistent self-reported symptoms
	4-12 weeks	>12 weeks
CoMMinS	Symptom reported as experienced during past 30 days in two or more survey rounds with 4-12 weeks of each other	Symptom reported as experienced during past 30 days in two or more survey rounds, with the first and last report >12 weeks of each other
SIS	(a) Symptom reported as experienced during +/- 7 days of sampling in two or more survey rounds with 4-12 weeks of each other (b) Symptom reported as ongoing for 4-12 weeks	(a) Symptom reported as experienced during +/- 7 days of sampling in two or more survey rounds, with the first and last report >12 weeks of each other (b) Symptom reported as ongoing for >12 weeks