

Data Sharing Statement

Hampshire A, Azor A, Atchison C, et al. Cognition and Memory after Covid-19 in a Large Community Sample. N Engl J Med. DOI: 10.1056/NEJMoa2311330.

Question	Authors' Response
Will the data collected for your study be made available to others?	Yes
Would you like to offer context for your decision?	—
Which data?	De-identified dataset as used in reported analyses
Additional information about data	—
How or where can the data be obtained?	Applications should be addressed to p.elliott@imperial.ac.uk, complete the data access request form, which must be approved by the REACT Data Access Committee prior to a data transfer agreement being put in place with Imperial College London.
When will data availability begin?	With publication
When will data availability end?	NA
Will any supporting documents be available?	Yes
Which supporting documents?	Statistical analysis plan
Additional information about supporting documents	—
How or where can supporting documents be obtained?	Online as a supplemental appendix at NEJM
When will supporting documents availability begin?	Beginning Date: With publication
When will supporting documents availability end?	End Date: NA
To whom will data be available?	Bonafide researchers from academic institutions whose proposed use of the data has been approved by the REACT Data Access Committee (RDAC)
For what type of analysis or purpose?	For evaluating the published results and extending the analyses for research purposes as approved by the RDAC and in keeping with the participant consents
By what mechanism?	With a signed and approved data transfer agreement from Imperial College London
Any other restrictions?	No
Additional information	—

This statement was posted on February 29, 2024, at NEJM.org.