

Suppl. Fig. S7.: Linkage between polymorphic loci. The normalized correlation coefficient between pairs of loci (r^2_{norm}) was averaged over different pairs with similar distance between the loci, using a 5 bp window. Only windows with at least 20 values were plotted. Higher r^2_{norm} values suggest that loci at the given distance were more likely inherited together.