
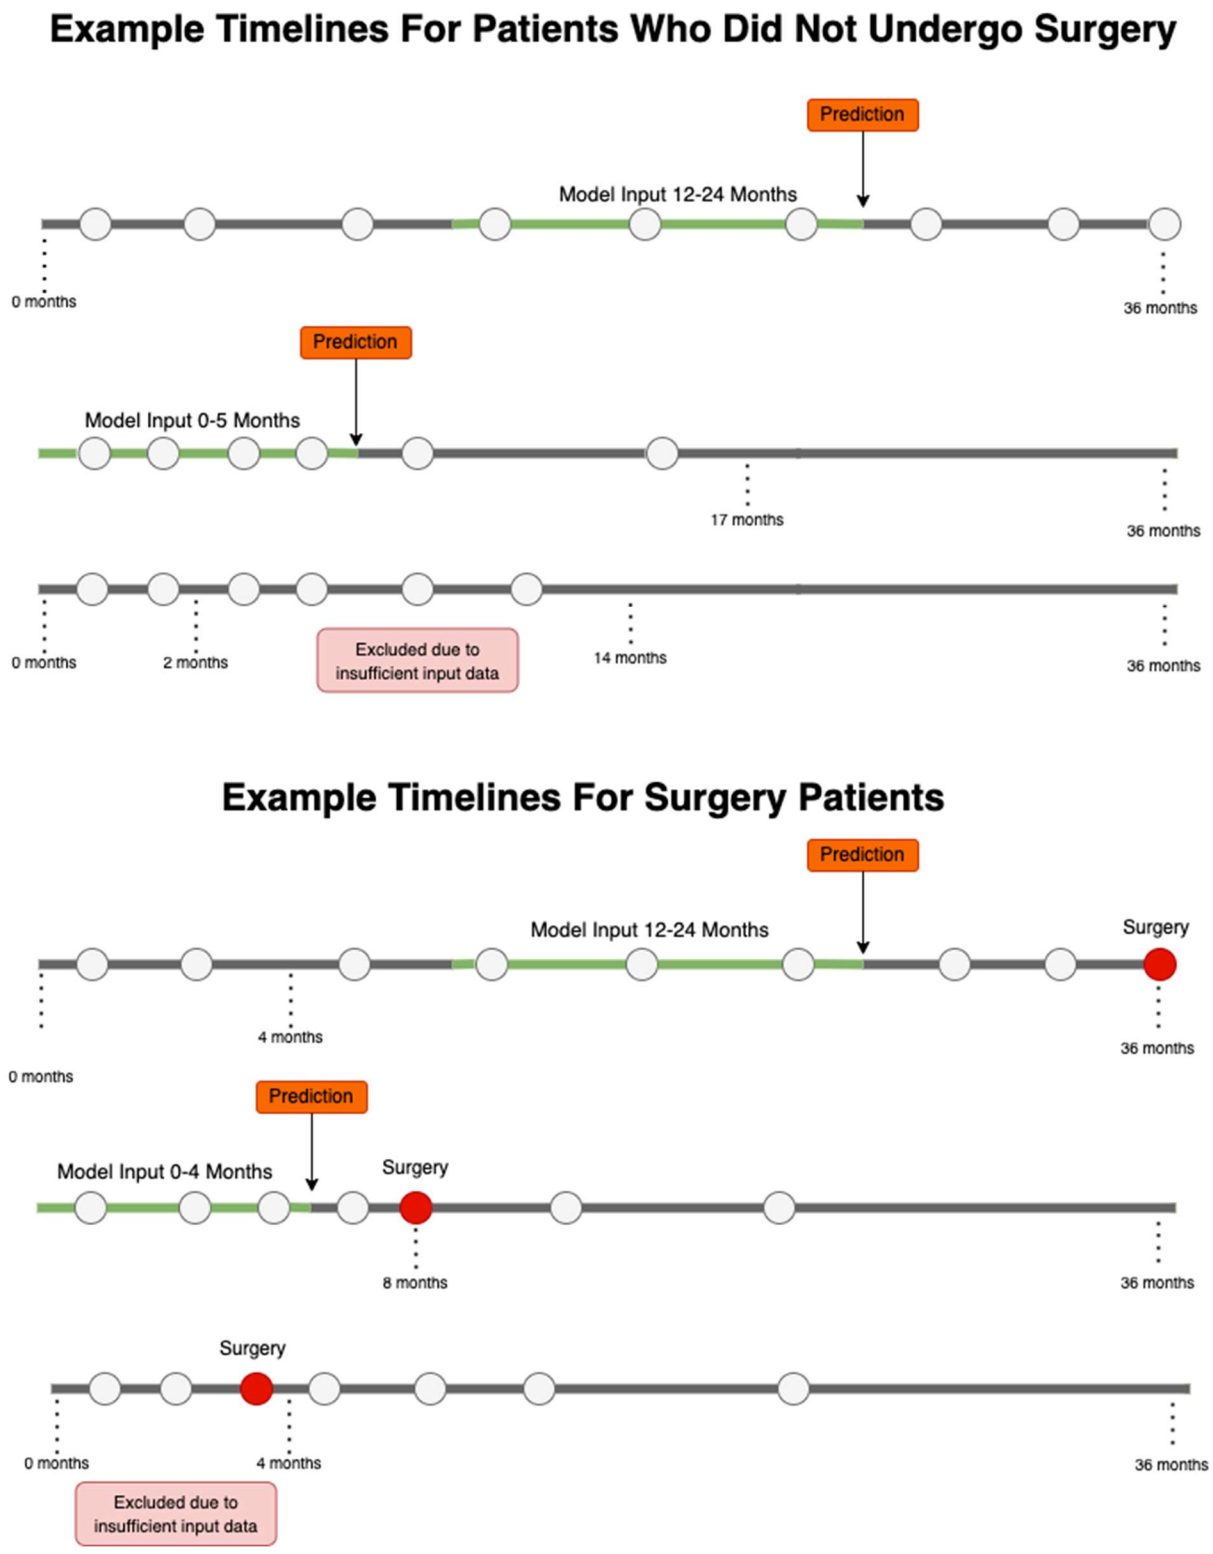

Figure S1. Example Timelines for Surgery Patients

Legend: This figure depicts example timelines of patients who did and did not progress to glaucoma surgery. Orange circles represent surgery dates. White circles represent other encounters with associated clinical data in the electronic health record. The timelines depict the prediction date for different types of patients and the time frame of input data from the electronic health record.