

A Mixed-Methods Community Needs Assessment of Santa Maria and Guadalupe, California

Submitted to Journal of Community Health

Marilyn Tseng, Daisy Rojas, Edgardo Hernandez, Mario Alberto Viveros Espinoza-Kulick,

Irebid Gilbert, Maritza Perez, Elisa Gonzalez, Suzanne Phelan

Corresponding author: Marilyn Tseng, mtseng@calpoly.edu

Supplemental Table. Items in long (40-item) and short (19-item) forms of survey.

	Also included in short form
1. Safe and affordable housing is available	X
2. Youth and adults do not abuse drugs or alcohol
3. All residents in the community have adequate emotional and social support
4. Mental health problems are recognized and treated in our community	X
5. A wide variety of recreational opportunities are available and affordable for people of all ages and levels of physical mobility	X
6. Dental care and preventative screenings are available for all	X
7. Jobs are available in the community	X
8. Children, youth, and adults maintain healthy weights and active lifestyle	X
9. Quality childcare is available and affordable
10. Individuals are aware of and know how to access health care services
11. Children and youth are free from abuse
12. The infrastructure in our community makes it easy and safe to be physically active
13. People are safe in our community
14. Adults and youth know how to avoid unsafe sex and have access to contraceptives.
15. Our community has an adequate number of health professionals who understand our language and culture	X
16. People who identify as LGBTQ+ are not discriminated against
17. Healthy foods are available and affordable for all	X
18. People of color are not discriminated against	X
19. People have voice and influence in things that matter to them
20. Alcoholism & drug dependence are recognized and treatment is available
21. People in the neighborhood work together to solve local problems	X
22. Individuals are free from physical or verbal abuse from their spouses or partners
23. Local air, water, and soil is free from pollutants
24. Neighbors feel a sense of belonging to each other and this place
25. Police serve the interest of people in this neighborhood	X
26. Older adults enjoy a good quality of life in our community
27. Our schools work well
28. Pregnant women and new mothers adopt healthy behaviors (e.g. breastfeeding, avoid smoking or using alcohol or drugs, eat healthy foods)
29. Victims of rape and sexual assault get the help they need	X
30. People have opportunities to receive education or skills training
31. This is a healthy place to live
32. There are resources to help people identify and manage COVID-19	X

33. People of all ages and abilities have available transportation	X
34. Adults receive recommended vaccinations
35. My family members and I are treated with respect by other people in the community	X
36. Children and youth have access to basic medical services	X
37. Laws against selling or providing alcohol to minors are strictly enforced
38. Laws against selling or providing cigarettes and smokeless tobacco to minors are strictly enforced.	X
39. Pregnant women access early prenatal care	X
40. Children and youth are up to date on their immunizations	X