

Western blots of IKK α and IKK β protein levels in BxPc3, DanG and Patull cells transfected with the indicated siRNAs 48 hours post-transfection compared to untransfected or control siRNA transfected cells. The membrane was stripped and probed for β -actin to control equal protein loading.