

Additional file 3. Analysis of the lengths of signal elements in FUE, NUE, CE-L and CE-R. Vertical value represents the length of the elements and the horizontal value represents the percentage of the difference between the actual number and the expected number.

