

Figure S1. The number of PETs sequenced in this study represent a saturation level of 73.24%. This estimate is based on comparisons of actual sequencing results (red line) to a fitted Hill Function (green curve). The function is shown adjacent to the curves.