

Additional file 3: Conserved domains in SmIRF.

A: BLAST analysis against the SWISSPROT database. A conserved N-terminal DNA-binding domain in SmIRF can be easily detected. B: In silico analysis of SmIRF using NetPhos revealed the presence of several Serine phosphorylation sites, important for IRF function and regulation.

