Figure S2. Evolution of path length distribution

Evolution of the distribution $p(d)$, the probability to find two nodes in the network that are a distance d apart, for every $1,000^{th}$ network on the line of descent, for a network evolved in a dynamic environment.