

Supplementary Figure 2. Interassay variability.

Samples of 0.5 , 2 , and 8×10^6 unsorted spleen cells were taken in triplicate from the same mouse, and then independently processed and analyzed with AmpliCot. Samples were normalized to a single clone standard. The coefficient of variation was 21%.