

Figure S1: Frequencies of strains observed in the 5-way CG Leptospirillum group II population, calculated from the average allele frequency for each polymorphism occurring in a strain relative to the dominant population. Strains are sorted in ascending order of allele frequency. Error bars show ± 1 standard deviation. Each point represents one strain.