

Supplemental Figure 8. Cellular responses of A. thaliana to a crude culture filtrate of M. oryzae. Control plants were treated with a solution of distilled water and acetone (50:50, mock). Leaves at 3 dpi are shown (first row). Cell death was detected by trypan blue staining (second row). Enlarged images of the stained cells through a light microscopy are shown (third row).