

Additional figure 4: Classification accuracy achieved using two different reference sets. Each colored bar depicts the accuracy achieved by TACO A with two different reference sets. The label "Taxonomic organism of test fragment absent from reference set" refers when the test fragment is classified using a reference set not containing the source organism from which the test fragment originates from.