1. Authorship Responsibility, Criteria, and Contributions.

Each author should meet all criteria below (A, B, and C) and should indicate general and specific contributions by reading the criteria and checking the appropriate lines.

- A. I certify these three things:
- The manuscript represents valid work and neither it nor another one that that I have written with substantially similar content has been published or is being considered for publication elsewhere, except as described in an attachment.
 - If asked, I will provide or fully cooperate in obtaining and providing the data on which the manuscript is based so the editors or their assignees can examine it.
 - For papers with more than 1 author, I agree to allow the corresponding author to
 - be the main correspondent with the editorial office,
 - review the edited manuscript and proof, and
 - make decisions about releasing manuscript information to the media, federal agencies, or both.

If I am the only author, I will be the corresponding author and agree to handle these responsibilities.

- B. I have given final approval of the submitted manuscript.
 Yes No
- C. I have, or a coauthor has, had sufficient access to the data to verify the manuscript's scientific integrity.
 Yes No
- D. I have participated sufficiently in the manuscript to take public responsibility for (check only one) part of the content the whole content.
- E. To qualify for authorship, you must have made substantial contributions to the intellectual content of the paper. Please indicate your contribution(s) to this manuscript. Check all that apply.
- conceived and designed the research
 - acquired the data
 - analyzed and interpreted the data
 - performed statistical analysis
 - handled funding and supervision
 - drafted the manuscript
 - made critical revision of the manuscript for important intellectual content
 - other (specify) _____

2. Acknowledgment Section (for Corresponding Author Only).

Authors should obtain written permission from all individuals who are listed in the Acknowledgments section of the manuscript, because readers may infer their endorsement of data and conclusions. The corresponding author must sign the following statement, certifying that (1) all persons who have made substantial contributions in the manuscript (eg, data collection, analysis, or writing or editing assistance), but who do not fulfill authorship criteria, are named with their specific contributions in the Acknowledgments section of the manuscript; (2) all persons named in the Acknowledgments section have provided the corresponding author with written permission to be named in the manuscript; and (3) if an Acknowledgments section is not included, no other persons have made substantial contributions to this manuscript.

3. Copyright Transfer Agreement.

The American Heart Association, Inc. (AHA), a New York not-for-profit corporation, located at 7272 Greenville Avenue, Dallas, Texas 75231, and the Author hereby agree:

In consideration of the AHA reviewing and editing the Work described below for first and exclusive publication,

Journal Hypertension
Manuscript number 2009/138024
First author Daliao Xiao
Title of Work Prenatal cocaine exposure causes sex-dependent impairment in the myogenic reactivity of coronary...

The author who signs below hereby assigns, conveys, and otherwise transfers all rights, title, interest, and copyright ownership in this Work to the AHA when the AHA accepts it for publication.

- "Work" means the material submitted for publication plus any other related material submitted to the AHA.
- The rights assigned to the AHA include (but are not limited to) the rights to - edit, publish, reproduce, distribute copies, prepare derivative works, include in indexes or search databases in print, electronic, or other media, (whether or not they are used when this agreement is executed), and
 - claim copyright in this Work throughout the world for as long as it is copyrighted, including renewals or extensions.

All accepted Works become the AHA's property and may not be published elsewhere without the AHA's prior written permission.

- Authors may use parts of the Work (eg, tables, figures) in subsequent works without asking the AHA's permission.

For Works created under grant and accepted for publication in an AHA journal, the author may cause the Accepted Version of the Work to be posted on the Web archive of a body that funded all or part of the Work, and/or an author's institutional repository, provided that this post appears no sooner than 6 months after the AHA publishes the Work in a journal and that
