

The non-attenuated slope could not be calculated because within the voxels of the Foveal ROI correlations between blind subjects were not positive.

The non-attenuated slope could not be calculated because within the voxels of the Peripheral ROI correlations between sighted subjects were not positive.

