

Supplementary Fig.1 Enzyme activity is determined by absorbance at 330nm after photometric assay. Enzyme activities were divided to the total protein concentrations . The normalized enzyme activity without DBH was set to 1.0 to compare the relative activity of the wild type and mutants.