

Supplemental Figure 1:

Normal and fragmented nuclei as used to count cell death by microscopy in response to staurosporine (STS). Determination of the percentage of cells with fragmented nuclei throughout this study involved counting the number of fragmented nuclei and total nuclei for numerous fields of view. Shown here is a field from normal and apoptotic (fragmented nuclei) cells. Bars represent 20 $\mu$ m.