

Online Supplemental Material

Supplemental Figure 1. Changes in serum concentrations of total cholesterol (A) and HDL cholesterol (B) after consumption of test meals. Means are reported as least-squares means \pm SEM, $n = 6$. Change scores were calculated by subtracting pre-meal baseline values from each time point. There were no significant effects of treatment by time point or treatment as a main effect.