

Supplemental Figure 1: Immunofluorescence microscopy for RIG-I in HT-29 cells incubated with anti-RIG-I L-15 goat polyclonal antibody in the absence (left) or presence (right) of blocking peptide ($1\mu g/mL$). Anti-RIG-I L-15 antibody was incubated with blocking peptide for 1hr at room temperature and then immunofluorescence performed as described in Materials and Methods.