

Long-term outcomes of the ¡VIVA! Peer Tutor Project: use of MedlinePlus by former peer tutors and the adults they taught

Cynthia Olney, PhD; Lucille Hansen, MLIS, MA; Ann Vickman, MLIS; Sara Reibman, MLIS; Frederick B. Wood, MBA, DBA; Elliot Siegel, PhD

Table 2
The ¡VIVA! peer tutor experience and lifelong learning skills (n=30)

| Question: Please indicate if your experience as a peer tutor increased your skills in the following areas |    | Yes |   | No |   | Not sure |
|--|----|------------|---|-----------|---|-----------------|
| Finding health information for myself  | 29 | (97%)*     | 1 | (3%)      | 0 | (—)             |
| Helping others find health information when they need it   | 29 | (97%)      | 1 | (3%)      | 0 | (—)             |
| Managing projects (planning projects, meeting deadlines, etc.)   | 29 | (97%)      | 0 | (—)       | 1 | (3%)            |
| Using library resources for research   | 29 | (97%)      | 0 | (—)       | 1 | (3%)            |
| Listening to and understanding others  | 28 | (93%)      | 1 | (3%)      | 1 | (3%)            |
| Working in teams   | 27 | (90%)      | 1 | (3%)      | 2 | (7%)            |
| Participating in community service   | 27 | (90%)      | 1 | (3%)      | 2 | (7%)            |
| Appreciating and respecting many different types of people   | 27 | (90%)      | 2 | (7%)      | 1 | (3%)            |
| Speaking publicly  | 25 | (83%)      | 3 | (10%)     | 2 | (7%)            |
| Communicating interpersonally  | 25 | (83%)      | 3 | (10%)     | 2 | (7%)            |
| Using technology (like software, PDAs, etc.)   | 24 | (80%)      | 2 | (7%)      | 4 | (13%)           |
| Writing clearly  | 18 | (60%)      | 9 | (30%)     | 3 | (10%)           |

* Percentages should be interpreted with caution due to the low number of respondents