

Figure S1: Expression level changes of proto-oncogene and tumor-suppressor genes for two skin cancer types. We only consider the up-regulated proto-oncogene and down-regulated tumor-suppressor genes. Each row represents expression changes of a gene across all the cancer types under study. Each column represents one cancer type. The fold change of gene expression is color-coded with red, white and green for up-, no and down-regulation.

