

Figure S3: Expression level changes of genes involved in the positive regulation of cell proliferation for two skin cancer types and seven non-skin cancer types. Each row represents expression changes of a gene across all the cancer types under study. Each column represents one cancer type. The fold change of gene expression is color-coded with red, white and green for up-, no and down-regulation.

